

PAYING FOR COLLEGE

1

Federal Financial Aid (FAFSA) financialaid.byu.edu

Fill out the FAFSA at fafsa.gov to be considered for Pell Grants and student loans. Fill it out early to receive aid as soon as possible. Remember to reapply every year.

2

BYU Scholarships scholarships.byu.edu

Students must apply each year for BYU scholarships. The application is available in September, and must be submitted by February 1. Continuing student scholarships include academic (based on BYU GPA), need-based (must fill out the FAFSA by January 20), and private scholarships.

Other Scholarships byu.scholarshipuniverse.com

BYU department scholarships may be available. See your department or advisement center for details. Scholarship Universe is a 3rd party site for approved scholarships. Log in with your BYU Net ID and password.

Employment, Savings, Parents yjobs.byu.edu

Use your personal savings or ask family members to help pay for school. Many employment opportunities are also available on campus. Pay typically ranges from $9-12/hr with a limit of working 20 hours a week, so you can also focus on classes.

Financial Fitness Center financialplan.byu.edu

Schedule a one-on-one consultation to assess your situation, identify financial concerns, and consider steps you can take to address problems. Find additional info about paying for school on financialplan.byu.edu.
